

EAP 75: Conversational English

Credits 5

Provides international students with the concepts to be able to communicate with English speakers, function in college life and the community, and understand spoken English language.