

FS 110: Pumpers and Water System Hydraulics

Credits 4

Studies of fluid mechanics dealing with the mechanical properties of water at rest and in motion, its application to suppression operations, and fire streams. Includes municipal and rural water supply operations, basic fire pump components, systems and operational skills. Fire Department Sponsorship Required.