

MUS 145: Brass Class Instruction

Credits 1

An introductory master class that covers the principles of brass instrumental technique, performance and literature. Students will perform in class regularly and must have their own instruments. May be repeated for credit.