

MUS 146: Woodwind (Single Reed) Class Instruction

Credits 1

An introductory master class that covers the principles of woodwind (single reed) instrumental technique, performance and literature. Students will perform in class regularly and must have their own instruments. May be repeated for credit.