

NURS 490: Leadership Portfolio and Capstone Project

Credits 1

Students enrolled in this course will develop personal professional portfolios, designed to illustrate the student's academic achievements during the RN to BSN program. Collaborative problem solving and leadership skills will be utilized when working with community partners. This capstone experience will culminate in the dissemination of scholarly research through an end-of-quarter poster presentation.