

CHEM 106: Drugs in Society

Credits 5

Explores the basis of drug action, major categories of drugs, as well as risks and benefits of drug use from an individual, social and economic viewpoint. Other topics include historical perspective and ethnopharmacology; delivery, absorption, distribution, metabolism and elimination of drugs; modern drug development and regulation.

Weekly Contact Hours

5

Meets Degree Requirements For
Natural Science