

NURS 480: Senior Preceptorship

Credits 6

This senior preceptorship course focuses on the synthesis of professional nursing concepts. Through clinical immersion in a selected area of practice, students will work under the mentorship of a nursing preceptor as they transition into the role of a registered nurse. Students will collaborate with the healthcare team to provide compassionate and holistic care while prioritizing safe patient and organizational outcomes.