

BCT 205: Business Communications

Credits 5

Prepares students for proper communication in: the workplace, an interview, or a work-related meeting or function. Emphasis will be on communicating effectively through planning, composing and evaluating written, and/or oral communication and report writing.