

CHEM& 161: General Chemistry I

Credits 5

A study of the states of matter; foundational atomic, ionic, and molecular structure; mass/mole relationships & stoichiometry; quantification of solution concentration, thermochemistry, fundamental chemical reactions, quantization of electronic distribution and periodicity. Mainly for science majors, engineers and other students requiring one or more years of college chemistry. Laboratory included.